Shelby County Board of Commissioners

Commissioner Mark Billingsley
District 4, Position 2
(901) 222-1000
mark.billingsley@shelbycountytn.gov

Commissioner Mark Billingsley was appointed to the Shelby County Board of Commissioners on January 13, 2014 to represent District 4.

Mark is a Director at the Methodist Healthcare Foundation. He has been a leader in the nonprofit sector serving as an Executive Director as well as a Director of Development. He is a resident of Germantown, Tennessee and grew up in Memphis. He attended Christian Brothers High School and the University of Memphis.

From 2008 to 2012, he was elected as an Alderman in the City of Germantown and also served as a Vice-Mayor. He has also served as a volunteer Reserve Police Officer for the City of Germantown.

Volunteer service has been his passion serving on numerous boards and offering his support to organizations such as Memphis Area Association for Retarded Citizens, Shelby Residential Vocational Services, United Cerebral Palsy Associations, Special Olympics, Leadership Germantown and Camp Celebration for children with disabilities. He has received numerous recognitions and awards including Top 40, Under 40, Thousand Points of Light Volunteer, Germantown's Home Town Hero Award and awards from the Boy Scouts of America as a Scoutmaster for children with disabilities.

Mark's goal as a Commissioner is to be a fair and effective leader and to address the challenges faced in Education, Public Safety and Government Efficiencies.

Mark is married to Diana and they have two children. They are members of Holy Rosary Catholic Church.