District Attorney General Names Veteran Assistant M. Carter Myers to Deputy District Attorney

MEMPHIS, TN- November 9th, 2012 District Attorney Amy Weirich appointed Assistant District Attorney Carter Myers to office of Deputy District Attorney. Myers assumes the Deputy D.A. duties effective November 16th, 2012.

Myers, hired by the District Attorney General's Office in October 1977, has served as Administrative Assistant of the District Attorney's Grand Jury Section since 1991. As an assistant district attorney, Myers has worked in the D.A.'s Child Support Unit and as a trial attorney in Criminal Courts prior to being assigned to the Grand Jury Section. He is a veteran of the United States Marine Corps.

Myers earned a Bachelor of Arts from Memphis State University in August 1973, and in December of 1975 he earned his juris doctorate from Memphis State University's Cecil C. Humphreys School of Law. Upon graduating law school, he worked as a law clerk to Judge Robert Dwyer of the Tennessee Court of Criminal Appeals.

"Carter is one of the best and brightest," said District Attorney General Amy Weirich. "Having him serving as Deputy will greatly enrich the staff of this office and the public we serve."

Myers has been married to his wife Elizabeth for forty (40) years. They have three daughters, and four grandchildren.
