DATE August 5, 2013

ARAMARK and SCSO Correctional Services Program Announces White Coat Commencement Ceremony

The Aramark Correctional Services IN2WORK program was designed to provide inmates with food service training and practical work experience. Using the skills and knowledge gained through the program, inmates have the opportunity to become more employable outside the prison environment.

Highlights of the 8-week training class included formal vocational training both in the classroom and kitchen to include culinary skills, practical work experience and ServSafe certification.

The program will feature 30 graduates who will participate in the commencement and white coat ceremony. It will take place Tuesday, August 6, 2013 in the CJC Jail Officers Dining Room beginning at 1:30pm. The media is invited to attend.
