

MEDIA ADVISORY

March 18, 2014

CONTACT: Dewanna Smith, PIO

Dewanna.lofton@memphistn.gov

O (901) 576-6032 C (901) 574-1494

HOMELESSNESS DOWN TWO YEARS IN A ROW, DETAILS TO BE SHARED IN NEWS CONFERENCE THIS WEEK

- WHO: Memphis Mayor A C Wharton, Jr., Shelby County Mayor Mark Luttrell, Jr., Robert Lipscomb, Executive Director, Memphis Housing Authority, Katie Kitchin, Executive Director of the Community Alliance to End Homelessness, Cornelius Sanders, Executive Director of Promise Development Corp.
- WHAT: There are fewer people living on the streets of Memphis and Shelby County. It's the second consecutive year homelessness has been reduced in the local area. City and County officials and members of the Community Alliance for the Homeless and other community partners will discuss the encouraging trend at a news conference.
- WHEN: 10 am, Thursday, March 20, 2014
- WHERE: 379 Cossitt Place, a duplex community operated by the Promise Development Corporation, one of many partners of the Community Alliance for the Homeless
- MEDIA CONTACT: Katie Kitchin, Executive Director
County Community Alliance for the Homeless/Memphis Strong Families Initiative
(901) 527-1302 EXT. 301 or katiek@cafth.org

####