

CRIMINAL COURT CLERK COMMUNICATION

Office of the Criminal Court Clerk - Thirtieth Judicial District

February 2021

Heidi Kuhn, Clerk

MESSAGE FROM THE CLERK

What began as a normal day on January 6th ended with so many people who were impacted by civil unrest. I am deeply saddened and frustrated with the state of our country after the attack on the Capitol. With shock and disbelief, we watched a mob attempt to take over our sacred democracy and tried to resolve how this could have possibly happened. As a public official, I at times have little time to react when faced with divisive issues and events. Any actions I make can shape the form, tone, and content of interactions between others, but I believe public officials play a critical role in establishing peace and public safety, protecting the community, and responding to the media. My response to this action may not be welcomed by some, but I must voice my concern and disappointment in the decision of those who chose to storm the Capitol.

Within the Criminal Court Clerk's Office, we have a great collection of ages, gender, religions, ethnicities, and political alignment which I greatly appreciate and I celebrate that diversity. As a whole, we are all Americans, living in this country and working in this office. This is not an office of "us" vs, "them", which is unfortunately where our country is currently and I am greatly concerned about the direction we are possibly facing.

America is strongest when we all believe in our county and our future, this has always been a country of "we" not "me", until recently. We are stronger when we bridge our divides and lift each other up, instead of tearing one another down. Let's remember what American's displayed on September 12, 2001, we stood together, united with pride, working together for peace and inclusivity, what happened to that America and can we get back to it?
