SHELBY COUNTY HEALTH DEPARTMENT COVID-19 SECOND DOSES

New appointments available Monday, February 22, 2021 at Appling

SHELBY COUNTY, TN – Shelby County Health Department is offering new appointment availabilities for second doses of both Moderna and Pfizer vaccines this Monday, February 22, 2021 at Appling Inspection Site, 2355 Appling City Cove. These are for anyone who has not yet been able to schedule an appointment.

Everyone with an appointment scheduled at Appling City Cove, the Pipkin Building, Germantown Baptist Church or SWTCC Whitehaven Center that was cancelled due to inclement weather will automatically be rescheduled to an appointment at the same location, same day of the week, and same time during the week of February 23 – 27, 2021. They will receive an email that lists the date of their rescheduled appointment. There is no need to reschedule those appointments.

Monday's second dose appointments at Appling are only available for those currently due second doses who do not have a previously scheduled appointment. Please do not sign up for an appointment if you received a first dose after the dates indicated. Signup online on the links listed below. Those without internet access or who need assistance may call our hotline: 901-222-7468(SHOT) between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. The hotline is available 7 days per week, including Saturday and Sunday. Messages left after hours will be returned on the next business day.
