SHELBY COUNTY GRIEVES WITH TOWN OF COLLERVILLE FOLLOWING HEINOUS MASS SHOOTING

Shelby County Government stands ready to support victims of the mass shooting with immediate crisis intervention, trauma counseling, and help navigating available financial assistance.

Shelby County, TN – As our community comes together after Thursday's senseless mass shooting, Shelby County Mayor Lee Harris and all in his administration grieve with the Town of Collierville. Shelby County Government has resources available through the Shelby County Crime Victims & Rape Crisis Center to provide support, counseling, and assistance to victims and their loved ones.

Victims can contact the Shelby County Crime Victims & Rape Crisis Center from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. at 901.222.3950. Available resources include immediate crisis intervention, trauma counseling, and support navigating emergency financial assistance.

Mayor Lee Harris: “Our community is still reeling from the awful mass shooting in the Town of Collierville. Our prayers are with the customers and staff who experienced this harrowing event. We know there are a range of services that victims may need in the coming days and months. Shelby County Government stands ready to support them.”
